Parenting Tip of the Month

When faith is important to parents, they sometimes worry that their children may drift away from the faith as they get older. But there is important research that tells us there are ways to help our children to stay connected: 1. Demonstrate a strong faith yourself; 2. Live out the Gospel values in all you do; 3. Read the Bible as a family (and adding discussions about what you read helps too!). It may seem too simplistic, but it can and does work. The reward for your children will be the confidence they feel in knowing that they have a God who is always with them, guiding all they do. From: Family Ministry Office: 905-528-7988 ext. 2250.

CWL News

Thank you to all the ladies who came out to our October meeting and, a special thank you to Fr. Markus who joined us for the evening. We thank you Cecilia for your many years of commitment to the CWL of St. Clement's Parish. We are now in the process of looking for a new President. Our second big announcement is that for the foreseeable future, our meetings will be held on the 1st TUESDAY of the month. The meetings will have the same fun, fellowship, and faith, but on a new night. If you have not been able to join us on a Monday evening, this is your opportunity to join in on our fun. Our next meeting is on Tuesday, November 1st at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall. Please use the Duke Street entrance.

Marriage Support

Your marriage does not have to feel like it is more trouble than joy, that it feels stagnant or disconnected and/or that it is causing you constant stress. The solution is Retrouvaille - a program for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationship. Retrouvaille has one purpose: to help couples restore their marriage and rebuild a loving relationship. This is a practical program, where sharing is not required except between the couple themselves, designed to improve communication, build stronger marriages, and help couples reconnect. It also works well for couples who may be considering separation or divorce. The next Retrouvaille weekend is Oct. 21-23. For more information call 905-664-5212 or email teamrecine@gmail.com.
