Congratulations!

This award is a special Trustee award that recognizes the outstanding achievement of an individual in our community and for their outstanding contribution to the artistic and cultural life of Cambridge.

Last year Marilyn was celebrated by the St. Clement community for her 60 years of service to our parish. Sixty years of playing the Casavant organ at our beautiful church as well as many years directing two choirs. Her achievements have been numerous and her involvement in our parish community as well as the City of Cambridge and beyond has led to this very distinguished award.

Congratulations Marilyn on this very high honour!

We are so blessed to have you share your gifts and talents with the people at St. Clement Church.

We look forward to hearing your beautiful music for many more years to come.

Dawn Centre - Baby Bottle Campaign

Mother's Day through Father's Day (May 14-June 18)

Usually, when someone says they are full it means they are satisfied; they have had enough. It is common for clients at Dawn Centre to come to us feeling empty, or feeling like they are not enough, or full of negative thoughts and experiences. Maybe they are like Taylor, whose childhood home lacked love and structure, and is now seeking connection through multiple sexual relationships. Or like Ada, whose mind and heart is overflowing with doubts and questions due to an unexpected pregnancy.

As staff and volunteers, we are grateful to be able to address the whole person wellness of these individuals by 'filling them up' with positive knowledge, resources, and support.

You can partner with us by:

1. Fill our virtual bottle by visiting: <https://www.dawncentre.ca/blessingsbottle>
2. Cheques can be sent to: Dawn Centre, 507-73 Water St. N., Cambridge, ON N1R 7L6
3. E-transfers can be sent to bookkeeper@dawncentre.ca
