Mass Resources for Kids

Just because it's summer, doesn't mean we should take a break from our Faith formation. Be sure to check out the Mass resources table at the back of the church every weekend for new activity sheets, books and resources that incorporate the Sunday readings and liturgical year. St. Clement's is here to journey with you in the life of the church and discover the rich treasures of our Faith.

Showcasing Our Parish History

We are so fortunate to be part of a parish where countless generations have set their roots and grown the Faith in our community. To showcase this history, we're asking you to share pictures of your favourite memories and life events from St. Clement's so we can post them on our social media accounts. Send your picture and a caption to andreaszrejber@gmail.com or drop off to the parish office.

St Clement's is on Social Media!

Follow us on Instagram (@stclements.cambridge), Facebook (@St Clement's Cambridge) and X (@st_clementcambr) to stay up to date on the latest news, events and life moments of parish life.

Sacrament of the Sick, Homebound/Hospital Stay

If you would like Fr. Markus to give you the Sacrament of the Sick or if you are at home or in hospital and you are not able to attend Mass, kindly call the parish office or have a family member call the parish so we can arrange a Communion visit from Fr. Markus or Deacon John Fioretti.

Note:

→During the summer (July & August to the first week of September) there will be no public Mass in church on Mondays and Tuesdays.

→During the months of July & August, we will be publishing one bulletin per month. Next bulletin will be published on September 1st, 2024.

→Weekly Mass Intentions will be placed on the bulletin boards for you to see.
