

St Clement SSVP Social Justice

As we begin the New Year let us continue the important journey towards Justice for All. The Church teaches that this is an essential part of the Church's mission.

This journey can seem overwhelming at times as there are many issues of injustice that occur locally and around the world. But each of us can make a difference in our own way by beginning with opening our hearts and minds and broaden our understanding of these issues. Below are a few events to help us do just that. Check them out, make a commitment to attend at least one and see where that leads you on this important journey.

Join the conversation: If you are interested in joining the conversation with like-minded people, come join us at our monthly meetings on the third Tuesday of each month from 7:00 – 9:00 pm. We would love to have you! Contact the Parish office for location (stclements@rogers.com or 519)-653-6123)

New Social Justice Coordinator

A wonderful opportunity to utilize your Time Talent & Treasures.

Due to Marie moving outside the Cambridge community, the St Clement Social Justice group is looking for a new coordinator to lead this important ministry in our Parish. An investment of 5-10 hours per month is all that is required. With two solid years behind us, a great team, and exciting initiatives ahead this is a very rewarding volunteer position. Contact the Parish Office at 519-653-6123, stclements@rogers.com, or contact Marie Adam directly at marieadam123@yahoo.ca to learn more.

UPCOMING EVENTS

There are many community activities that can guide us, if we are willing to open our minds and hearts as we journey towards Justice for all. Here are a few:

Human Rights and Housing Fights: Exploring government responses to homelessness and encampments

Tuesday, February 13 (10:30 AM - 12:00 PM)

LOCATION: All lectures are held at the Waterloo Memorial Recreation Complex Community Pavillion

This lecture will discuss the legal and legislative basis for the right to housing in Canada. It will explore how the right to housing has been discussed in international human rights covenants as well as through domestic legal and political mechanisms. Finally, the lecture will explore the implications of a right to housing lens for government responses to homelessness and encampments.

Instructor Bio Dr Laura Pin (she/her) is an assistant professor of political science at Wilfrid Laurier University, and acting director of the Laurier Institute for the Study of Public Opinion and Policy (LISPOP).

Her research explores the relationship between social inequality and public policy. She currently works on projects focused on housing policy, civic engagement, eviction prevention and encampments.

St Jerome's University: Lectures in Catholic Experience Presents - Dr. Jonathan Malesic

Beyond Burnout Culture

February 29 | 7:30 p.m.

Burnout has become the go-to term for describing our dissatisfaction with work. To break out of North American societies' obsession with work, we need to rethink our assumptions about the relationship between work and the good life. In this talk, Jonathan Malesic, author of The End of Burnout: Why Work Drains Us and How to Build Better Lives will propose that we should ground our working lives in human dignity, compassion for workers, and a greater emphasis on leisure as a site of meaningful activity. He will show how these ideals are manifested in communities of Benedictine monks and religious sisters.

St Jerome's University: Lectures in Catholic Experience Presents - Dr. Tricia Bruce

Her Place in the Church: Gender, Power, and Authority in Contemporary Catholicism

March 21 | 7:30 p.m.

Gender has long prescribed the roles of men and women in the Catholic Church, refereed formally via ordination and informally via social norms. Drawing upon hundreds of interviews, Sociologist Dr. Tricia Bruce compares the prospects and parameters of women's leadership at two moments in the Church: following Vatican II (six decades ago) and today.

Concerned Lay Catholics A Voice for Lay Catholics in Canada

Nurturing Synodality:

Each month, Concerned Lay Catholics invites you to join in conversation about some aspect of synodality and its implications for our life in the church. A different resource person or panel will get us started each month. Then we will all have an opportunity to share in the spirit of synodality. Our presenters:

- February 4- Father Bill Burke on Why We Need a Synod in Canada
- March 3-Mary Ellen Chown on Synodality and the Global Movement for Women's Equality
- April 7- Nicholas Jesson, Ecumenical Officer for the Archdiocese of Regina-Synod on Synodality from an Ecumenical Perspective
- May 5 -TBD

For details about the topics and resource people, check the events calendar on our website.

Reel Justice Film Festival is back! In partnership between Development & Peace (the official international development organization of the Catholic Church in Canada) and The Roman Catholic Diocese of Hamilton's Bishop Farrell Library & Archives. These organizations strive to support social change and provide education around issues of unfair social, political, and economic structures.

These are engaging documentaries, beginning January 25th at 7 pm to open our minds to the challenges and opportunities around us. The films this year focus on land and placemaking, tackling themes of food sovereignty, land rights, endangered species, and organic agriculture.

Some events are in person and some can be experienced in the comfort of your home via Zoom.
